DENMARK

The condition of Jesse Kenison, who is suffering from pneumonia, is much improved.

Denmark High School won second place at the winter carnival at Brownfield, Wednesday.

Mrs. R. A. True and daughter, from Casco, are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ingalls.

The school staged three one-act farces, "When the School Bell Rings," "Fitter Plumes" and one other, at the Grange Hall, Friday evening. H. A. D. Hurd from Fryeburg, directed the musical numbers, all of which were very good, particularly the negro spirituals and "On the Road to Mandalay." A social followed.

Mrs. Effie True and son, William, from Casco, have been spending a few days at their home at Head's Corner. John came Saturday night for over Sunday.

Several of the young people attended the movies at Conway, Saturday evening.

Next Saturday the Girl Reserves are to have a Washington's Birthday dance at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Morton's orchestra will furnish the music. They are to decorate, have favors, specialty dances, prizes, refreshments, etc. Grace Dunn is their club leader this year, assisted by Alice Sanborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Pingree have spent a week with Beth Caples at Towson, Md., and several days at Washington, D. C. They are not expected home before another week, anyway.

Ralph Hilton has a new Ford.

SWEDEN

Mrs. Evelyn Bowley and Pauline spent the day, recently, with Mabel Saunders, Irving Bowley and Charles Saunders went ice-fishing on Keyes Pond, catching some good pickerel.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Culeman and son, Robert, and Will Marr of Waterford called at Clarence Flint's, Sunday, Feb. 9. Roger Merrill spent the week end with his friend, Edward Tarbox, in Harrison.

Mrs. Ella Moulton has been visiting her daughter, Marion Hamlin, of South Waterford.

Mrs. Harold Paige is spending two days last week with her daughter, Addie Chandler.

Eleanor Saunders visited Ada Flint, Saturday.

Mrs. Clayton Littlefield spent a few days last week with her daughter, Addie Chandler.

Ernest Bennett has been helping Ray Kneeland saw wood and going on the track with him in Bridgton.

A few of the neighbors gathered at Clarence Flint's, Saturday night, to play cards. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and apples were served.

Mrs. Josie Bennett and Eva Bennett are making rugs this winter.

Millard Adams is building a small house on Lizzie Spears' land near her house, so as to be near his father, who has been sick all winter. Will Mann is helping put up the frame work.

Howard Verrill is cutting wood on the Artie Hagwood place near Kneeland.

Alice Perry went to Bridgton, Friday.

Henry Mann has been sick with a sore throat and cold.

Clarence Flint is hauling timber to Kneeland mill.

Mrs. Bernice Richardson has gone to Conway to be with her husband, who works there. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill surely miss the two little grandchildren.

HARBOR

Mrs. Adelbert Watson has been with her son, Fred, and family at the village several days.

Mrs. Roscoe Thompson has been sick. Preparations for a new bridge in place of the covered bridge were begun last week.

The Bible study class met with Mrs. W. E. Benson last week, Wednesday.

The Epworth League served supper and held a Valentine party, Friday night and report a good number present and a fine time.

Mrs. S. C. Guphill and sons, Ellsworth and James, Mrs. Sarah Pray and Mrs. Gladys Pray have been sick.

STOW

Your correspondent saw in the Advertiser where his friend, David Bradley, had a cow which was something extra.

"Well, Dave, here is a king for your pavin'." Wm. Sanborn has a cow, one of Chas. Farrington's breed of Jerseys, which made 38 pounds of butter, sold 62 quarts of milk besides furnishing all the milk needed during the month of January.

Now when you get a real cow, come again.

Walter P. McKen is much better from his cold.

J. A. Hanscom is out around and much improved in health.

Lena Emerson is better.

William M. Sanborn got home from Tamworth, Wednesday evening, Feb. 13. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garland brought him home and visited Mrs. Garland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stone of North Chatham, N. H.

Albert Hurd is cutting pulp for E. L. McKen.

Lois Charles of Fryeburg is visiting her uncle, Maurice Eastman.

Penley Brown had his picture taken with 18 red foxes he has caught since Christmas.

Maurice Eastman is better from his lame back and cold, but not feel very good yet.

One of our outstanding men in this community is Lester Fernald, always just the same, doing his chores, delivering milk and moving around just the same every day and seventy-three years old; a much better man than lots that are younger.

EAST OXFORD

Lewis Marcotte and Chester Grover, seniors of Oxford high school, spent Sunday and Monday with Merritt Caldwell at the Caldwell Farm, East Oxford. Monday morning the roads were drifted so bad they could not get to school, so the three boys worked with the road crew all day. They returned to school, Tuesday morning.

CLEANING UP AFTER DISEASE

Many farmers and stockmen don't realize the importance of thoroughly disinfecting farm buildings after an outbreak of infectious disease.

Infectious disease germs accumulate in the soil, in litter, on floors and walls and in cracks and crevices.

The best disinfectants for farm buildings are some of the coal-tar products such as a spionized cresol solution.

This preparation mixes readily with water and, used at the rate of at least 4 ounces to a gallon of water, is a very effective disinfectant.

Another good disinfectant is carbolic acid, known commercially as liquid carbolic. Careless disinfection is sufficient to keep the germs from multiplying and it is driven into cracks and crevices.

The most effective method of application, particularly on large surfaces, is with a strong spray pump.

NORTH LOVELL

The "Wild Cats" gave Mr. and Mrs. Amos McKen a surprise party the evening of February 13, twenty-seven of their friends and neighbors spent the evening with them. They played games, had some music and some fine singing.

It was an all around good time and greatly enjoyed by the surprised and surprised.

Mrs. Lottie Palmer has trouble with her throat the past week, something like an abscess, with severe pains attending it.

Parker Flint is poorly and in care of a physician.

Tamarack Talk

We are getting sick of war books, war books and still more war books. They are not what they're cracked up to be. They aren't peace propaganda at all and they do more harm than good. Yet they are a great market for them, and people read them. Why? Because they enjoy them. We do not read what we do not enjoy reading and writers do not serve to their readers that which they do not enjoy writing.

The still increasing demand for books on the war shows that people are not yet grown out of a too human craving for satisfying the bellicose instincts of man.

It is a sorry fact that in a time when we want peace so much (or seem to) that we are doing the very things that present our progress toward world harmony and friendliness. That persons want to hear and see and read about war is only too obvious. That they want to do so in order to learn not to fight is all bunk!

They like to hear about war and fighting. They have an age-old idea that there is a great amount of adventure connected with it and even if a writer may give his book to the public and tell them outright that it is not adventure they won't see it that way. For there is a glamour, a mystery, an uncanny attraction to war. And they just can't help it. So that is what we are up against—education of the masses of humanity away from the idea of any kind of war.

When you see children playing, pointing fingers for guns (if not guns themselves) and a "boom", falling down, what does it mean? It means that they are getting a notion of the idea of killing another person, and as he sees more "killer" movies and more war pictures what can you expect, but that he will take war and killing as a natural course in the affairs of men.

This is a false feeling of patriotism. It is not the fine spirit that we should feel when we think of defending our country in its work as the leader in striving for world peace.

What we need today is a world patriotism. The age of nationalism passed with the World War. We are entering upon an era of Internationalism and devotion to mankind should supersede a too narrow minded nationalistic viewpoint.

We should not even think of the war. We don't want war books now. We want to be told how to exist together, how to live and thrive constructively with one another. We don't even want any books on how to bring about peace, either by limiting navies or armies or forming federations.

If we could have a war-less consciousness, a war-less thought, constructive minds, not thinking of peace (which requires war), then would come indeed the "healing of the nations". —Tam.

Men's Clothing Stores

Our Advertising

Has Been

Criticised

BY A MAN WHOSE JUDGEMENT WE

RESPECT

He says we are about the worst advertisers he knows of and we ought to get someone who can do a good job to handle it for us.

He says, "You should use lots of advertising space to tell people about your stores. Make them understand what good stores you conduct. With the attractiveness of your stores together with the large variety of selection and quality carried they should be the outstanding stores of this locality."

Well, we plead guilty in thinking our stores were much better than the average clothing stores in the country for neatness and attractiveness. We have always tried to be accommodating, prompt and work for our customers' good by having the late styles and dependable qualities. We have spent quite a lot of money advertising and as a whole had a very satisfactory patronage.

Evidently we have fallen far short of our possibilities. We admit we could do more and want to do more. How is it to be done?

We welcome advice, criticism, suggestions. We are willing to pay for constructive ideas that will cause you and the public in general to visit us in greater numbers than ever before. What is your idea?

BLUE STORES

CLEAN, PURE MILK

Is it not clean, pure milk from healthy cows and produced under sanitary conditions, that the public wants, should have and will soon demand? Is not the proper housing of cattle, with direct light, correct ventilation, suitable drainage, pure drinking water, a system that will cool milk quickly, cleanliness, general sanitation, etc., necessary to the production of such milk?

Are not the consuming public always ready to pay the price for clean and wholesome foodstuffs? Why not a substantial premium on quality milk that would stimulate the dairymen's interest and make possible such improvements? Would they not appreciate an incentive rather than a command?

Would not conditions as mentioned above, serve to destroy practically all cause for tubercular and most other diseases of cattle?

It was my privilege, and pleasure, to spend a week-end last summer with a New York dairymen who was a producer of Grade A milk. This man told me that his premium check for quality alone for the month previous, was $125.00.

Saco Valley United Parish

Ministering to Lovell, Fryeburg Harbor, North Center and W. Fryeburg, Stow, Toll Bridge and Union Hill. Staff: Rev. Clifford Cross, Lovell, Rev. Walter Pavy, Fryeburg Harbor.

It was raining hard, but almost every body turned out to the church night at the bridge on Thursday. After the worship period and the showing of the splendid pictures on "Malaysia" the evening was finished with games and pot luck. The Harbor Epworth League are to be congratulated on the St. Valentine's party held in the vestry, Friday evening. Young people from several parts of the parish were present as guests of the Harbor young folk. After supper everybody enjoyed the program of games and committees arranged by the program committee. An interesting start was made Saturday morning of an all-parish Pioneer's basketball league. Pioneers from Lovell, the Harbor, North, Center and West Fryeburg met at the Academy gymnasium, and with some Fryeburg Academy and grammar school students, played several games of basketball. If transportation difficulties can be overcome it is hoped to arrange a schedule of games to be played between now and June time.

The North Fryeburg Villages Workers served dinner in the library on Wednesday and are arranging a supper and entertainment for Saturday evening at the Rev. Mr. Hall.

The annual meeting of the Saco Valley United Parish is to be held at the Harbor church next Wednesday, Feb. 26th. The meeting will meet in the afternoon and there will be a noon meeting at night. Rev. C. M. Hughes, District Supt. of the M. E. church, will be present and speak at night. The Ladies' Aid of the church will serve supper.

All parts of the parish are urged to send many representatives as possible to the annual meeting, and also any from the churches or churches that might desire to with the parish are invited to attend.

The North Quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held immediately following the evening meeting of the Harbor church.

Members are out announcing the winter festival of the parish, to be held at Lovell, Sunday, March 1st. Invitations are sent to all schools and academies to participate in the snow shoe and ski races. The program of events will be published this week.

SAYS! TANLAC WITHOUT EQUAL FOR STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES

Nurse Gives Remarkable Endorsement

Tanlac may seem miraculous in its action to millions who ended stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as rheumatism, pains in the back, sides, joints and muscles from its use—but the truth is every drop of Tanlac is a strong potent medicine while most other remedies are weak and ineffective. Mrs. B. Picard, a nurse with many years' experience, is one who ought to know. She says, "In 10 years active nursing have found Tanlac without an equal as a remedy for stomach and liver troubles, and I can certainly promise people wonderful results in view of my long experience with this medicine. I had stomach troubles for years, could eat scarcely anything without suffering, never any appetite, always nervous and run-down. But as soon as I began Tanlac it started to build me right up. All stomach troubles were routed and never any pain, distress or gases since. Now I eat everything with perfect safety." Many "patent medicines" make glowing promises that may tempt you to buy them but remember Tanlac is a REAL medicine that backs its claims with a guarantee. Do not accept a substitute. At all drugists.

Now a combination Electric Washer and Ironer

for the price formerly asked for a good washer alone

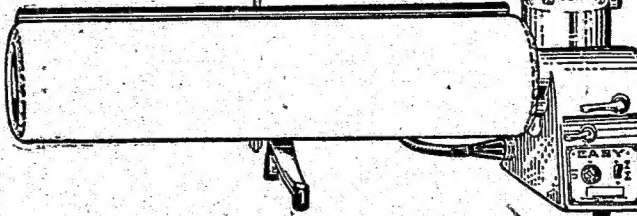

Here it is, the new combination Easy WASHER and IRONER that does the two hardest tasks in the home in a fraction of the time by ordinary hand methods.

The Easy Washer, well known throughout our territory through its great number of satisfied customers, can now be made a complete laundry unit simply by interchanging the wringer with the new Easy Ironer.

The washer embodies the famous agitator washing principle. It thoroughly cleans shirt cuffs and collars in one washing without soaking. Generous and roomy it is amply large for better than the average washing.

$49.50 for Ironer alone

With the advent of the new Easy Ironer, the task of ironing becomes nearly as enjoyable as playing a game... simply sit down and guide the pieces through the machine.

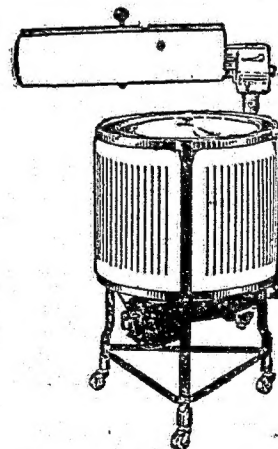

If you now own a wringer type Easy Washer this new Ironer can quickly be interchanged with the wringer and it's ready for the ironing.

BRYANT POND

Ruth Forbes and Frank Coburn were united in marriage on the evening of Feb. 6. The marriage ceremony took place in the parsonage here, Rev. A. K. Fillmore officiating, only the near relatives being present. The bride was given away by her father, the groom by her brother, Mr. Coburn. She carried sweet peas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Forbes and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson. She is a graduate of Woodstock high school and completed one year in Gorham Normal school. She has a pleasing voice and often as a child helped in local entertainments by rendering vocal solos. For some time past she has been governess for the children of Mrs. E. P. Ricker, Jr. at Poland Springs.

The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coburn of East Auburn. He is a graduate of Edward Little high school and of Scotch-English descent, is a 22nd degree Mason, a Shriner and an Elk. He served in the foreign legion in South Africa and Asia during the late war, was wounded and in a foreign hospital several weeks.

During the ceremony there was a large crowd of the bride's school friends waiting impatiently outside. As soon as the last vow was taken, they burst in with youthful glee, demanding that the bride should produce her husband whom no one should have seen. As this wish was granted they straightway showered them with rice and confetti, then turned their attention to the bride's bouquet, and finally to the bride's face, which they examined with the patience of Job to straighten out the tangles. They gave the Woodstock cry for the bride and the groom and amid whoops and merry laughter.

The couple left directly for Portland, planning to stay there Thursday night and leave the next morning for the middle west. The bride has an uncle, Duke Thompson, in Kansas City. They expect to go there. Mr. Coburn expects to enter the N. S. School of Aviation and Engineering. The wedding gifts consisted of table silver, linen and money. Many wishes are expressed that fate will deal out to them an abundance of marital happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Stowell were at Andover to attend the silver wedding of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milton. There were about thirty there and it was a complete surprise to them.

The Girls' Club held a masquerade ball Saturday night, Feb. 8, at the Grange Hall. There were four prizes given for the best costumes, Abner Mann and Myrtle Clifford and for the comic, Murray King and Clara Whitman. The orchestra furnished music.
